Week of Prayer for International Missions

Please play the provided video on your Roku Player.

Today marks the first day of the Week of Prayer for International Missions hosted by the International Mission Board. If you start today, you will learn about the Bagby family in Nepal and how they are trying to reach 28 people groups way up in the Himalayan Mountains. Each day you will learn about another IMB missionary family and how you can pray for them as they reach the lost in the most difficult places. When you pray for missionaries during the Week of Prayer for International Missions, you support their work of sharing the gospel and serving people.

You can also enhance your week with videos and photographs by going to www.GABCMissions.com and clicking on the article about the Week of Prayer. Inside the article you will find a link to the online version of the Week of Prayer for International Missions.

Pray

Many of you know missionaries that serve in other places. Have your Bible Study Department name out loud some of those missionaries that they know. Voice a prayer for these missionaries that God would open wide the doors for the gospel in the areas in which they serve! Pray also for them as many of them are away from family through the holidays and that is always difficult.

Do Something

On December 17 we will be taking up our annual Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for World Missions. 100% of the funds given go to our missionaries on the field. Begin praying now about what your contribution might be. Our church's goal this year is $90,000.
